2. All the state meteorological stations transmit their weather reports by radio and teletype to the Berlin Central Telegraph Office, using the international weather code. The Central Telegraph Office forwards by teletype all incoming reports in the form of a collective message to the Main Meteorological Station of the Potsdam Central Observatory, Weather Service Department. Here the reports are evaluated and transmitted by radio.

3. Foreign and Western German weather reports are transmitted to the Potsdam Meteorological Station via the Hamburg Meteorological Station. For this service the following call signals are being used:

Hamburg:	MQW
French Zone of Germany:	MTA
Austria:	OEB
